

RMU Radio Shows for Spring 2010
Alternative State- This program is produced by 4 students, it is a show talk about what it's like to live on campus from their perspective. In between their discussions they will play music.
Monday 9:00-10:00 pm
Anthony Berardi- Nursing
Tiffany Maceiko- Nursing
Chris Dobos- Communications
Rob Connely- Communications
Ice Talk- This program is more of a sports talk show that is all about professional hockey. There will be some interviews and if the time allows there may be a few songs thrown in.
Tuesday 4:30-5:30 pm, Thursday 4:30-5:30 pm
Brooks Bratten- Communications
The Venue- This program is all about the local bands. There will be interviews done with them and their music will be played during the show time.
Wednesday 7:00- 8:00 pm
Shaun Sweeney- Finance
LEW's Laughline- This is an hour long program with clips of comedians and their jokes. There will be a few songs thrown in as well.
Wednesday- 1:30-2:30 pm
Lauren Weathers- Media Arts, TV/Video
Colonial Sports Radio- CSR is all about Robert Morris Sports. There will be highlights from previous games, there will also be interviews with coaches and athletes.
Wednesday- 3:00-4:30 pm
Ernie Barnard- TV/Video

Chris Baginski- Communications
The Dug Out- This is a talk show that is mostly about the MLB but may also turn to the minor leagues and possibly some other leagues in the Pittsburgh area.
Monday- 6:00-7:00 pm
Ernie Barnard- TV/ Video
Zukini Juice- This program is about a variety of things throughout the hour that it is on air. Some include; Current events, sports, entertainment, and music.
Tuesday- 1:00-2:00 pm
Bruce James Bale- English/ Instructional Leadership
Justin Zuccarelli- Instructional Leadership
Women's Colonial Sports Radio- A talk show that focuses on the women's sports on campus, it will mainly focus on the in season sports. There will be interviews with athletes.
Thursday- 12:30-1:30 pm
Ashleigh Friedday- Communcations
Witching Hour- This program is all about playing music that will help to broaden the minds of those that listen to it. Occasionally there will be a guest appearance to give input on what they think of the music that is being played.
Wednesday- 8:00-9:00 pm
Benjamin Opp- Biomedical Engineer
Tras Watts- Media Arts
Ebonically Speaking- This is a program that will explain words that are used in every day conversation that may have a double meaning, such as slang terms, relationships, what he/she said.
Monday- 12:00-1:00 pm
Saphyre Jones- Mathematics
Jackie McQueen- Undecided

Hip-Hop Countdown- The program is the top 40 songs of the week being played in a continuous countdown twice a week.
Tuesday & Thursday- 6:00- 7:00 pm
Chance Wideman- Sport Management
Get Blitzed- This program is an entertaining and an opinionated show that will cover scores, standings and news around the NFL.
Friday- 4:00-5:00 pm
Justin Downs- Communications
Mud Shark Records- This show is going play a mix of classic music. After every couple of songs they will talk about the ones that were played.
Wednesday- 6:00-7:00 pm
Andrew Pochan- Media Arts
Alex Blair- Graphic Design
Gay or Straight- This show is to help bring everyone together in the gay and straight community.

Monday- 2:00-3:00 pm
Kim Perry- Communication/ Advertising
Adrianna Carbonara- Business Education
Voices of the World- This program is going to show the varieties of music and stories that are focused on the different cultures found in the Pittsburgh area.
Tuesday & Thursday- 7:00-7:30 pm
Daouda Dianne- TV/Video
Semih Bedir- TV/Video
News Talk- This is a talk show with a unique insight on the political and social issues, while providing entertaining discussion about the concerns.
Tuesday- 9:00-10:00 pm
Katie Hostetler- Applied Psychology
Keith Smith- Sport Management